Re: Insurance

Youth Music of The World (International) Limited carries substantial third party liability insurance. This insurance indemnifies all participants in Youth Music of The World events against any claim arising as a result of those participants performance in the following events.

The New Year's Day Parade London.

Gala Concerts associated with the New Year's Day Parade London performed between the 28th of December and the 2nd of January in any given years.

The extent of the insurance cover is 3 Million Pounds (5.5 Million Dollars) for any single incident.

In addition, of course, all participants in the New Year's Day Parade and Festival in London who participate in the full performance tour programme are covered by specific travel insurance underwritten at Lloyds of London the details of the policy being attached to this statement.

Further, every supplier to the New Year's Day Parade and Festival in London has a legal requirement to be insured fully for the extent of any risk which they assume. Youth Music of The World is circumspect in ensuring that all insurances for such suppliers are sufficient and current.
